

Media Advisory

Steam Pump Village to Announce New Tenants

Who/What: The developers of Steam Pump Village will announce newly signed hotel, retail and restaurant tenants at a June 7 ceremony to commemorate Steam Pump Village's official groundbreaking.

Anchored by Steinway Piano Gallery, Steam Pump Village is a one-of-a-kind, 41-acre, multi-use retail center in Oro Valley featuring a 402-seat outdoor performance arts theater. The center will include retail, restaurants, walking paths and a hotel set against the spectacular views of the Pusch Ridge and Santa Catalina Mountains.

When: Steam Pump Groundbreaking Ceremony
June 7, 2005
8:30 am

Where: Steam Pump Village is located in Oro Valley on the west side of N. Oracle Road, just north of First Ave., and directly across the road from Honeywell.

Interview

Opportunities: Gregg Alpert, Chief Operating Officer, Evergreen Devco, Inc.
Mark Weinberg, Vice President & Project Manager, Diamond Ventures
Brenna Lacy, Broker, Volk Company
John Simon, Steinway Piano Gallery

Visual

Opportunities: Groundbreaking Ceremony including VIPs representing the Town of Oro Valley Mayor Loomis, the Steam Pump Village developers, Evergreen Devco and Diamond Ventures. In addition, renderings of Steam Pump Village will be provided.

Assignment

Note: Interview prospects will be on hand to answer questions during the groundbreaking event; however, pre/post event interviews can be arranged.

Media Contact:

Cindy Jordan
The Caliber Group, Inc.
520-795-4500